Ryanair, Europe's No.1 airline, today (13 May) announced a new route from Marseille to Paphos, operating twice weekly from July, as part of Ryanair's French Summer '21 Schedule.

French consumers can now book a summer getaway, flying on the lowest fares and with the option to avail of Ryanair's zero change fee should plans change.

To celebrate, Ryanair has launched a seat sale with fares available from just €19.99 for travel until the end of October 2021, which must be booked by midnight Saturday, 15th May only on the Ryanair.com website.

Ryanair's Director of Commercial, Jason McGuinness, said:

"As vaccination rollout programmes continue in the coming months and with the summer season just around the corner, we are delighted to announce this new route from Marseille to Paphos, operating twice weekly from July as part of our French summer '21 schedule.

Mindful that Covid restrictions change regularly, customers can now book flights for a well-deserved break knowing that if they need to postpone or change their travel dates, they can do so up to two times with a zero-change fee until the end of October 2021.

To celebrate, we are launching a seat sale with fares available from just €19.99 for travel until the end of October 2021, which must be booked by midnight Saturday, 15th May. Since these amazing low fares will be snapped up quickly, customers should log onto www.ryanair.com to avoid missing out."
